| Participation &amp; respect | Learners are required to attend all days and participate fully in the course respectively sharing their ideas, views and experiences with other group members, SafeLives staff and guest speakers.  | We expect all learners to model pro social behaviour on the training. Should a learner fail to respect the views and opinions of others, SafeLives may refer the matter to the individual's line manager and if behaviour is persistent, SafeLives reserve the right to withdraw the learners training place and no fees will be refundable.   |                          |
| Confidentiality             | Any personal disclosure that takes place during the course shall remain within the training room except where such a disclosure relates to risks of harm to an individual or relates to child protection.   | Should the lead trainer or assessor identify poor or dangerous practice particularly where that practice relates to risk to life or child protection, SafeLives reserves the right to share information with the relevant authorities within legislative regulations and the learner's line manager. This would be done in consultation with the learner wherever possible.  |                          |
| Organisational support      | You have the support of your manager to enable you to complete the written, assessed element of the course and in submitting worksheets within the agreed timeframes.   | Your manager has received a copy of the terms and conditions of the training course. Any learner who fails to submit an assignment by the specified deadline – SafeLives will inform the learner's manager.  |                          |
| Originality                 | Every learner must only submit work that is their own; other professional people's work may be quoted, providing it has been specifically acknowledged by clear cross-referencing to the author and publication. Learners from the same project may discuss questions together but it is important that the actual worksheet is completed separately. | If SafeLives has concerns regarding plagiarism this will be investigated under our plagiarism policy and where appropriate be raised with the individuals' line manager. We use the plagiarism software Turnitin and all learners' assignments will be submitted to this tool. Where learners submit work that we reasonably believe has breached the plagiarism policy, an investigation will take place and may result in SafeLives being unable to mark any of their work and they may not receive any accreditation for the course. SafeLives may withdraw the learner's place/s and no fees will be refundable. |                          |
